COMFORTABLY CAPABLE

90 years of outdoor heritage meets 21st-century tech to create an athletic boot that's ready to explore with no break-in required.

ULTIMATE STABILITY

We partnered with Vibram® to create a revolutionary midsole and outsole for the Mountain 600 that provides unparalleled cushioning, flexibility and traction without adding weight.

DEPENDABLE WATERPROOFING

Rebuffing the rain is in our DNA. The Mountain 600 is designed with minimal seams and lined with a 100% waterproof, breathable Danner Dry barrier.

BUILT TO LAST

ENDURING CRAFTSMANSHIP IN A TIMELESS SILHOUETTE

We've put in the hard work building the Bull Run in our Portland, OR factory, so you can trust that we've got your connection to the ground covered. A full-grain leather upper and Danner Wedge outsole are equal parts strong and soft, keeping you supported and comfortable long after you've clocked out.

90 YEARS
— OF QUALITY —
BOOT MANUFACTURING

Nearly a century ago, Charles Danner came west to build boots for loggers. He figured if his boots could do the job here, in the rugged forests of the Pacific Northwest, they could do the job anywhere. That spirit of quality and craftsmanship is alive in every boot we make to this day, from our rugged work boots to tech-driven hikers.

AN ICON ON AND OFF THE TRAIL

Mountain Light Cascade

Handcrafted in Portland, Oregon with a one-piece full-grain leather upper and rugged Vibram® Kletterlift outsole, our Mountain Light Cascade has earned its reputation as an all-time hiking boot great. With 40+ years of exploration to its name, it's tackled every trail you can think of — and it just gets better with age.

Available in Men's and Women's sizing, with optional waterproof GORE-TEX liners.
